

Open House: Parent Seminars & Fun Learning Workshops for Kids

22 September (Sat) 2018 | 10am - 6pm | Buds Party Room

Join us for a complimentary parent seminar by Shangri-La Buds' special guest, Ms. Renée Boey, founder of Baker & Bloom Education Center in Hong Kong. As an experienced educator, Renée will offer insights on cultivating literacy in this screen-saturated world and share current thinking on what learning for the future entails!

Session 1: 10am

How to Raise Readers & Writers in the Age of Screens

- Is your child always glued to a screen?
- What does research say about the difference between reading e-books and physical ones?
- How do we read and tell stories in the digital age?
- How can students improve writing skills across a range of media?
- What do experts recommend parents do to encourage young readers?

Session 2: 2pm

Future-wise: Successful Learning in the 21st-Century

- How will technology in the classroom and the workplace change the way your child learns?
- How do you learn how to learn?
- What modes of thinking, dispositions, and skills are essential for a successful future?
- How should parents and teachers adapt?

About the Speaker

After obtaining literature degrees from Harvard and Cambridge University, Renée Boey founded Baker & Bloom in 2014 to provide a learning environment where young people can be immersed in academic rigor, creative thinking, and intellectual curiosity. Renée has taught IB English and Humanities, served on a school board, chaired the Harvard Book Prize in Hong Kong, and helped many students gain admissions to top US boarding schools and colleges. Renée is passionate about innovative education and preparing students to thrive in an unpredictable future.

Complimentary Learning Workshops

inspirED Reader & Writer

The Polar Express (1 hour)

If you were to wake up to a train outside your home, with a conductor promising to take you to Santa, would you take it? All aboard the Polar Express where students will learn to analyze illustrations and think deeply about the characters and plot of this classic Christmas tale.

Time : 11.00am - 12.00pm

Venue : Buds

Age : 4 to 5 years old
